2. Nomination

We offer the following options for nominating a beneficiary to receive your superannuation benefit in the event of your death:

- A reversionary beneficiary nomination where your pension will generally revert to your nominated beneficiary automatically on your death provided they are a 'dependant' for tax purposes at that time.
- A valid binding nomination is a legal instruction, whereby the Trustee is legally obligated to pay your superannuation benefits according to the binding nomination.
 - A binding non-lapsing nomination does not expire (it will continue until further instructed).
 - A binding lapsing nomination is valid for three years after it was signed by the member. A new form must be signed and delivered to the Trustee if you wish to continue your nomination. If no valid nomination is made the Trustee will pay your benefit to a dependant(s) or your Legal Personal Representative. Your binding lapsing nomination will also cease to have effect if you subsequently marry, remarry or divorce.

To be effective, you must sign your binding nomination before two witnesses who are each at least 18 years old, and who are not nominated as a beneficiary.

- A non-binding nomination is simply your recommendation to the Trustee as to whom it may pay your superannuation benefit. It is not binding on the Trustee, and the Trustee will use discretion when determining who to pay benefits to. This type of nomination does not require witness signatures.

Nomination type: (only choose one)
