Choice of super fund

You can generally ask your employer to pay your super contributions to the super fund of your choice.

By completing this form you'll be asking your employer to pay your super contributions to your Perpetual Select Super Plan (the 'Super Plan') account. This form provides a letter from the Trustee of the Super Plan stating it is a complying superannuation fund, and that it accepts employer contributions (overleaf) and information about how your employer can make contributions to the Super Plan on your behalf.

Instructions for completing this form: 1. If you are not already a Super Plan member you will need to apply first; 2. Complete and sign this form; and 3. Submit this form to your employer.

1. Details of my chosen super fund

I request that all future super contributions be paid as follows:

2. I request that all future employer contributions are made to the fund specified above

employer name(s)
employee name
TFN					date of birth	/			/
signature of employee							date	/			/

Employers can make SuperStream compliant super contributions for employees using the fund details provided above.

3. This section is for your employer to read and to complete

Don't send a copy of this form to us or to the ATO. You must keep a copy for your own records for a period of five years.

Before 1 July 2026, provided all fields are completed and this form is signed by your employee, any super contributions you make in the two months after receiving this form can be made either to your nominated super fund (your default fund) or to the employee's new chosen super fund. Super contributions after the two months must be made to the employee's new chosen super fund. From 1 July 2026, employers must pay employees their superannuation guarantee contributions on payday, at the same time as their salary and wages. Superannuation contributions must be received by the employee's super fund within 7 business days of payday. The first super contribution for a new employee will need to be made within 20 business days of the salary or wages being paid.
