Investment approach

The Portfolio adopts a multi-manager approach, combining specialist investment managers with complementary styles and philosophies. This diversification seeks to reduce volatility by avoiding over-exposure to any single manager or investment style. Specialist investment managers are selected based on their ability to implement Responsible Investment strategies, which may include replication of an ESG index. Derivatives may be used in managing the portfolio.

Specialist investment managers are selected for their distinct investment styles and/or biases which are intentionally chosen to improve the risk/return characteristics of the overall investment blend. Collectively, this multi-manager structure aims to deliver a well-diversified portfolio across holdings, sectors, and market capitalisations. Perpetual undertakes rigorous due diligence prior to manager selection. Each selected manager is engaged under a separate account arrangement, allowing full transparency over the underlying holdings. Managers are subject to ongoing review and may be appointed or removed at Perpetual's discretion, without prior notice to investors. As such, the composition of specialist investment managers may vary throughout the life of your investment.

Investment strategy

The strategy is biased towards utilising investment managers that have a robust investment process, operate within an appropriate risk management framework and operate in an aligned and stable organisational structure. Utilising a multi-manager framework, the strategy aims to provide a blend of managers that together are expected to deliver a relatively smooth return profile, while including Responsible Investment considerations as part of their investment strategy.

Each investment manager is granted the flexibility to apply their unique investment philosophy and approach to assessing investments from an ESG and responsible investment perspective. This may include the use of both negative and/or positive screening methodologies. However, all specialist investment manager strategies must include the Global Industry Classification Standard (GICS[®]) based exclusionary screens as outlined in the Product Disclosure Statement (PDS), which prohibit investment in companies identified in specific GICS sub-sectors.

From a portfolio construction perspective, the highest weighting within the Portfolio is allocated to a “Core” manager, one that adopts a hybrid investment approach – combining fundamental bottom up company analysis and other quantitative or systematic inputs to their stock selection process, so as to deliver a portfolio that is broadly style neutral with a more stable return profile through time and risk metrics that are more closely aligned to the benchmark. Beyond the Core, managers are then selected with particular investment styles or biases that are complementary to one another.
